

Looking for Lighter-Styled Red Wines?

From northern Italy's Emilia-Romagna region, Lambrusco is a low alcohol, spritzy sparkling red wine that can range from completely dry to semi-sweet. A delight with the local parmesan and salami, Lambrusco is built on the back of over a dozen indigenous grapes. Another great picnic wine.

Flavors: Fruity, raspberries, strawberries, and cherry with some flower themes running from start to finish, Lambrusco is bright and happy, with fruit way forward. Great picnic wine.

Producers to Try: Mionetto
