FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Azerbaijani President receives birthday congratulations from US officials

President Ilham Aliyev continues to receive congratulations from U.S. congressmen and senators, and members of the House of Representatives.

Baku, Azerbaijan – December 27th, 2013 -- AzeriAmericaNews.com released the following article entitled “Azerbaijani President receives birthday congratulations from US officials”, in celebration of his birthday. The article reads:

From Steve Stockman, U.S. Representative

Dear President Aliyev,

I would like to wish you all the best as you celebrate your birthday. Considering your many great achievements and well-earned successes, you have a life worthy of celebration.

I would also like to extend my congratulations over your recent reelection to the Presidency of Azerbaijan. You obviously have the confidence of the Azerbaijani people, and I am eager to continue working with you to promote relations between your country and the United States.

As a member of Congress representing parts of Houston, Texas, I especially value our relationship with our sister city, Baku. With your help we can continue to make progress in the areas of regional security, economic and energy development, diversity and inclusiveness.

I enjoyed getting the chance to meet you and experience your culture during my trip to Azerbaijan. It is my hope to visit again soon.

Warmest wishes,
Steve Stockman
U.S. Representative

From Mike Crapo, United States Senator

Dear President Aliyev,

I am writing to offer my sincere congratulations and best wishes to you on your birthday!

Your personal commitment and contribution to the strategic partnership between the United States and Azerbaijan are greatly appreciated. Our two nations are tested allies and our friendship has become even stronger under your leadership.

During your new term in office, I look forward to working with you on expanding and deepening the important U.S. – Azerbaijan relations.

It is my hope that this next year is filled with much health, happiness and great new memories.

Sincerely,
Mike Crapo
