FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

US congressmen urge world leaders to help end occupation of Azerbaijani lands

Washington, D.C. – February 27, 2014 – US congressmen Tim Ryan and Gene Green have made a statement on the 22nd anniversary of the Khojaly tragedy.

Green noted that Khojaly was one of the three biggest towns in the Azerbaijani region of Nagorno-Karabakh. He said the massacre was covered by reputable international media companies. He underlined that Azerbaijan was an important partner and friend of the United States. Green called on the world leaders to help broker a peaceful agreement that could put an end to occupation of the Azerbaijani lands.

Ryan remembered the Khojaly tragedy victims. He underlined that fair resolution of the Armenia-Azerbaijan conflict would be important in terms of establishing long-term peace in the region.

Founded in 2011 by an Azerbaijan businessman, Mr. Anar Mammadov, the Azerbaijan America Alliance is a non-partisan, non-profit organization providing critical information about the people, culture, society, industry, history, and current events of the Azeri people. Its mission is to foster and strengthen relations between the people of Azerbaijan and the United States. Through academic discussion, cultural programming, and political discourse, the Alliance aims to promote and advance a lasting partnership between the two nations' citizens.
