FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Azerbaijanis in US raise public awareness on Karabakh's occupation

Armenia still refuses to follow the four resolutions of the UN Security Council on liberation of occupied Nagorno Karabakh and adjacent areas. The parties reached the ceasefire regime in May 1994.

Baku, Azerbaijan — August 28, 2013 — US Azerbaijanis Network (USAN) has launched a written campaign to raise the awareness of the American public on occupation of Fuzuli, Jabrail and Gubadli regions of Azerbaijan by the armed forces of Armenia on 23 August 1993.

News. AZ reports, The appeal emphasizes the territorial claims by Armenia against Azerbaijan and the complete expulsion of Azerbaijanis from Armenia and the Nagorno-Karabakh region of Azerbaijan from 1988 to 1993.

The US Azerbaijanis Network points to Armenia's complete disregard for four resolutions of the Security Council that require immediate withdrawal of Armenian occupation forces from the Azerbaijani territories.

A thousand letters have been addressed to America lawmakers, members of US administration including Secretary of State John Kerry and local media.
